

LiteSource Privacy and Cookies Policy (2020-05-19)

LiteSource is committed to protecting your privacy. This policy explains how LiteSource collects customer information and how we use it.

Information Collected

When you use the LiteSource website to browse or for online shopping we collect details provided by you as well as information we learn about you such as products and services that you browse, such as:

Basic Personal Details

When you register for a LiteSource account online you will be asked for personal details including:

- First Name
- Last Name
- Email Address
- Delivery Address

Credit card details are not saved on our server without your consent, which is not required in order to complete a payment.

The information collected is not shared with any third party whatsoever and is only used by LiteSource for the purpose of improving our service to you, our customer.

We Use Cookies

LiteSource uses cookies to personalise its service and make communication more relevant to individual customers. Cookies are used to provide access to subscription only pages. Cookies are also used for fraud prevention and to prevent suspicious activity and fraudulent traffic. Cookies are used to improve functionality such as temporarily remembering previous products viewed.

Cookies are also used to provide LiteSource with analytical information to improve performance. LiteSource uses third parties to provide analytics and Fraud prevention. These third party cookies have access to personal information. Cookies may also be used to provide personalised advertising on our pages.

Access to personal information

On your account page there is an option to download all personal information that is held on our server as well as instructions on how to contact us to change or remove this information.